EU COLLABORATION!

LONG TIME
NO SEE!

»»» BIG DEVELOPMENTS

It has been some time since our last Skills4Life newsletter, but for good reason; we are committed to delivering the best possible outputs for our stakeholders and have been hard at work accomplishing this! In this third newsletter we'll describe some of these exciting developments.

MEETINGS ACROSS EUROPE! «««

In June 2023 we held our second in-person meeting in Poland, with our third being organised in Ireland in February of this year. Both meetings offered an opportunity for the partnership to come together again and plan our next steps, experience a new culture, and reaffirm the value of EU collaboration.

EXCITING TIMES!

>>> TRAINING COURSE IN FRANCE

Earlier this month the Skills4Life project partners and their external stakeholders, comprising members of the youth work, adult education, and social work industries, gathered in Aix-en-Provence to take part in a training course. Participants were presented with the Skills4Life Training Package (which includes a Handbook and In-Service Training Programme!), and had a chance to trial the Skills4Life Serious Game. We want to thank our wonderful partners and hosts, CBE Sud Luberon, for their hospitality.

DID YOU KNOW?

Aix-en-Provence, the location of the Skills4Life training course, is renowned for its thermal springs and charming architecture?

>>> NEXT STEPS

With project outputs well on their way to finalisation, we are beginning to think of the longer-term strategies established at the outset of the project. Our focus will move from content development to disseminating our work to the people who will benefit from it. We will be conducting piloting activities with young people, as well as adjusting our approaches based on the feedback provided by youth professionals.

This next phase of the project lifecycle will be the most rewarding of all, as we take our work out into the world and hopefully positively impact as many young people as possible.

In addition, preparations are well under way for our Final Meeting and Conference in Vienna, Austria, where our partners will come together one last time. Hosted by our project coordinators at Moveo International, we look forward to this exciting event.
